

My Myth

Name:

Think about the myth you are going to write. Where is it going to be set? Draw and colour a picture of the place that the myth will be set, and write down some sentences to describe it in the box next to your picture.

Description

MY MYTH Final Paragraph

Remember to solve the problem!

Finished? Check all three pieces of your myth...

- Is the spelling correct?
- Is the punctuation correct? Have you used capital letters and full stops?
- Does it make sense when you read it?
- Have you made your writing as interesting as possible using adjectives?
- Have you included the setting, characters, problem and solution?

Now you can illustrate your myth!

My Myth

Name:

Think about the myth you are going to write. Where is it going to be set? Draw and colour a picture of the place that the myth will be set, and write down some words to describe it in the box below your picture.

Key Words

Name: _____

STORYBOARDS

Use this storyboard to help you think about the myth you heard in class. Can you describe the setting and the characters and retell the main events?

Describe the setting...

Describe the characters...

What were the main events of the myth?

Now use this storyboard to help you think about the myth you are going to write. Think about the setting, the characters and the main events of your myth.

Describe the setting...

Describe the characters...

Think about the main events...